pwnguin, the local rental place in my hometown used to include photocopied manuals for any game we rented. This didn't bother me, because I understood the potential frustration of renting a game with no available manual. What pissed me off is that they would charge a hefty fee for replacing the shitty photocopy if we lost it. They treated it as ...

But some of the manuals actually contain the same comic. Be warned, not all game manuals have it. I can confirm that Game Gear does and SNES does not. That doesn't really matter though because the first game release was for Mega Drive and it does NOT have the comic. That means the first comic published was in the original Genesis game.
