I just put a Goldberg Extra 300 on order, already have the SuperTiger 90 to put in it. I would also be very interested in any upgrades or mods to the kit to make it better. Also what would be a good size fuel tank and prop to use on this? Not looking for 3d, just nice aerobatics.

Goldberg Extra 300 ??? I was the recipient of a fine Goldberg today and I was wondering if anyone has put a gasser on one. They recommend like a 1.20 glow for it but i'm hooked on gas. I have a G20 EI on my Funtana 90 but had to put a tuned pipe to get the performance I wanted, power to weight and all that. I'm trying to avoid that again.

They fly great! In fact, this EXTRA flys SO well....it's almost boring! :-) The ABS cowl is falling apart, but like all other Goldberg kits, what their kits lack in quality, is MORE than made up for in the way they fly! I've been using a TT 120 to turn an APC 16 x 8 in this CG Extra 300 for a few years now.

Carl Goldberg Extra 300 CAD Conversion. I have been working on the CAD Conversion of the Carl Goldberg Extra 300 - 68" wing span. I only have sheet one of the plans. Still looking for sheet two (wing and stab) to be able to finish it up. I took a guess at the stab based on what is on the sheet one.

Then it was a progression of Goldberg models: Falcon 56 which I flew until it fell apart with too much oil under the engine. Skylane 62 (one which I still have flying and its 30 years old!), Ranger, Extra 300 (two of them) and countless control lines in the early days before I could afford a radio for the Jr Skylane.
